1. The oral rounds of the competition shall take place via Zoom Cloud Meetings. However, the OC reserves the right to change the online platform to conduct the competition.
2. Technological Requirements:
 - a. Participants are to use a stable internet connection (4G or Wi-Fi) during the virtual rounds.
 - b. Participants must use laptops or PCs for the oral rounds. The use of cell phones is prohibited.
 - c. All participants are responsible for logistics and the OC shall not be responsible for any failure with the same.
 - d. Participants are advised to use headphones during the rounds for better sound reception.
 - e. The participants must ensure that any noise or audio other than their voice should not disturb the court proceedings.

- f. The participants should make necessary preparations before entering the meeting room i.e., downloading the Zoom App and ensuring that their device is compatible with the same.
- g. The participants are prohibited from recording the Virtual Courtroom proceedings in any form or manner.
- h. The Invitation Link to the Virtual Courtroom shall be sent to the team on their registered e-mail ID, two hours prior to the round.
- i. The Teams will be e-mailed the soft copy of their opponent's Written Submission prior to the oral rounds.
- j. Screen Name: Participants must rename their screen names on Zoom as their position in their team along with their UTC as their username while joining the Virtual Courtroom. For example, if Team 25 is Claimant in Preliminary Round 1, then the screen names shall be 'Speaker 1(C-25)'.

3. Identification Requirements:

- a. Since it is a virtual moot, all participants must bear with them at least one identity document for any probable verification during the Mooting sessions.
 - b. The background of the participants on video shall be plain and shall not contain any symbols or any representations.
 - c. Only the respective team members, judges, court masters and members of the organizing Moot Court Committee may be present in the Virtual Courtrooms. No faculty designate or observer of participating colleges/institutions/universities shall be allowed to join the virtual mooting sessions.
1. In the Virtual Courtrooms, all participants shall keep their videos turned on at all times.
 2. The participants must keep their microphones muted until they are required to speak.
 3. The distribution of time between the speakers should be intimated by the team to the Court Master prior to the start of the proceedings. The Court Master shall interrupt the meeting to give a reminder to each speaker at 5 minutes and 2 minutes before the time allotted, as provided by the teams, is to come to an end.

4. In case internet connection of Speaker 1 is lost or if that Speaker faces any other difficulty in connecting, a time limit of 5 minutes will be given to that speaker to reconnect. After 5 minutes are over, Speaker 2 will take over to put forth their arguments. In the meanwhile, Speaker 1 should try to reconnect. However, even after completion of arguments of Speaker 2, if Speaker 1 has not reconnected, the team shall be marked on the basis of arguments put forth by Speaker 2 and Speaker 1 only if he has put forth any arguments before disconnection.
5. In case internet connection of Speaker 2 is lost or if that Speaker faces any other difficulty in connecting, a maximum of 5 minutes will be given to reconnect. If that Speaker fails to reconnect, the team shall be marked only on the basis of the arguments put forth by Speaker 1 and Speaker 2 if he has put forth any arguments before disconnection.
6. In case the judges face Internet connectivity issues, the time limit of the respective rounds will be adjusted accordingly by the organizer of the round.
7. Any other queries will be solved by the Court Master in consultation with the OC.
8. The participating teams are not allowed to use any other electronic device other than the one which is being used to participate in the moot, including (but not limited to), tablet computers, mobile phones, smart/digital watches etc. in the Virtual Courtroom during the course of the round, including when the opposite team is addressing arguments. In case a member of a team is found using any such electronic device, the team shall invite a severe penalty which may include disqualification.
9. Any problems encountered by the teams should be communicated by the team to the Court Master via the group text feature of the organizer's hosting platform.
10. If a team scheduled to take part in a round does not appear within 10 minutes of the scheduled time, the other team shall be allowed to submit ex parte.

11. The organizers shall not be held responsible for any glitches arising out of poor network or other technical issues.
12. In any case whatsoever, the decision of the OC shall be final.

B. PRELIMINARY ROUNDS

1. Each team shall be required to represent both parties to the problem across the two preliminary rounds. The OC shall, through a seeding process based on the memorial score, pair the teams. The OC shall not disclose the seed rankings at any time
2. Each team shall have a maximum of 30 minutes to advance arguments which include the time for answering questions, rebuttals and sur-rebuttals.
3. Each team is entitled to divide and allocate time to each speaker of the team in the manner it deems fit provided that no speaker shall be allocated less than 10 minutes to advance their arguments. Time division adopted by each team shall be intimated to the Court Master before the commencement of the round.
4. The teams must mandatorily reserve a minimum of 2 minutes for rebuttals and sur-rebuttals by the claimant and the respondent respectively and this shall be included within the 30 Minutes time limit.
5. Judges may also exercise their discretion in extending the time for advancing of oral arguments and in determining the method of dealing with such extension of time in scoring the team.
6. Best Speaker and Second Best Speaker of Preliminary Rounds shall be decided based on the scores of the preliminary rounds.

C. Quarter Finals

1. 8 teams shall qualify for the quarter-final rounds based on their performance in the preliminary rounds in the following manner:
2. The 8 teams that win both the preliminary rounds shall qualify for the quarter-final rounds, subject to the following:
 - a. In the event, there are less than 8 teams with two wins across both the preliminary rounds then, in addition to the teams with two wins that qualify for the quarter-final rounds, the teams with one win in

- either of the preliminary rounds shall be considered for qualification to the quarter-final rounds. In such a case, the margin by which the team with one win has won the round shall be adjusted against the margin by which such team has lost the other round, based on the total score. The teams which have won by a greater margin than the others shall qualify for the quarter-final rounds.
- b. In the event there are more than 8 teams with two wins across both the preliminary rounds then the total margin by which the winning teams have defeated their opponents in both the rounds, based on the total score, shall be taken into consideration and the 8 teams with the highest total winning margin across the two rounds shall qualify for the quarterfinal rounds.
 - c. In the event of a tie between the winning margin of two teams, based on the total score, the memorial scores of the teams shall be considered in order to break the tie. The team with a greater memorial score shall qualify.
3. Based on the prescribed rules regarding qualification to the quarter-final round, 8 teams shall qualify for the quarter-final round. The opposing teams shall be decided through a seeding process dependent on the winning margin of the teams in the Preliminary Rounds.
 4. Each team shall have a maximum of 30 minutes to advance arguments which include the time for answering questions, rebuttals and sur-rebuttals.
 5. Each team is entitled to divide and allocate time to each speaker of the team in the manner it deems fit, provided that no speaker shall be allocated less than 10 minutes to advance their arguments. This shall be intimated to the Court Master before the commencement of the round.
 6. The teams must mandatorily reserve a minimum of 2 minutes for rebuttals and sur-rebuttals by the claimant and the respondent respectively and this shall be included within the 30 Minutes time limit.

7. Judges may also exercise their discretion in extending the time for advancing of oral arguments and in determining the method of dealing with such extension of time in scoring the team.

D. SEMI-FINAL ROUND

1. Qualification to the Semi-Final Round: The four teams that win their respective rounds shall qualify for the Semi-Final Round. In the event of a tie, the same shall be broken by taking into consideration the combined speaker scores of both speakers of a team, across the two preliminary rounds.
2. Based on the prescribed rules regarding qualification to the semi-final round, 4 teams shall qualify for the semi-final rounds. The opposing teams shall be decided through a seeding process dependent on the scores of the teams in the Quarter-final Round.
3. Each team shall have a maximum of 30 minutes to advance arguments which includes the time for answering questions, rebuttals and sur-rebuttals
4. Each team is entitled to divide and allocate time to each speaker of the team in the manner it deems fit provided that no speaker shall be allocated less than 10 minutes to advance their arguments. This shall be intimated to the Court Master before the commencement of the round.
5. The teams must mandatorily reserve a minimum of 2 minutes for rebuttals and sur-rebuttals by the claimant and the respondent respectively and this shall be included within the 30 Minutes time limit.
6. Judges may also exercise their discretion in extending the time for advancing of oral arguments and in determining the method of dealing with such extension of time in scoring the team.

E. FINAL ROUND

1. Qualification to the Final Round: The two teams that win their respective rounds shall qualify for the Final Round. In the event of a tie, the same shall be broken by taking into consideration the memorial scores.

2. Based on the prescribed rules regarding qualification to the final round, 2 teams shall compete in the final round.
3. Each team shall have a maximum of 40 minutes to advance arguments which include the time for answering questions, rebuttals, and sur-rebuttals.
4. Each team is entitled to divide and allocate time to each speaker of the team in the manner it deems fit provided that no speaker shall be allocated less than 10 minutes to advance their arguments. This shall be intimated to the Court Master before the commencement of the round.
5. The teams must mandatorily reserve a minimum of 2 minutes for rebuttal and sur-rebuttals by the claimant and the respondent respectively and this shall be included within the 40 Minutes time limit.
6. Judges may also exercise their discretion in extending the time for advancing of oral arguments and in determining the method of dealing with such extension of time in scoring the team.
7. The team with the greater total score shall be the winning team of the competition.
8. Results for the Final Round of the competition shall be declared during the valedictory ceremony and shall also be announced on the LinkedIn Page, Facebook page and website of the competition. The same shall also be intimated to the teams directly through e-mail.
