Dear Students,

Subject: Invitation to Participate in Nukkad Natak on Social Issues

The Legal Aid Committee of Law Centre-II, Faculty of Law, University of Delhi, invites you to participate in an upcoming Nukkad Natak (street play) initiative aimed at raising awareness on pressing social issues. This is a wonderful opportunity to engage with communities, spark meaningful conversations, and contribute towards social change.

Theme:

The plays should revolve around social issues such as gender equality, environmental conservation, education for all, rights of the underprivileged, mental health awareness, and other relevant topics that resonate with the challenges of today's society.

Language and Dialect:

To create a more impactful connection with local communities, we encourage you to perform in regional dialects or local languages. This will ensure that the messages are easily understood and relatable to the audience in the areas where the plays will be showcased.

Submission of Proposals:

- Interested students or groups are requested to submit their proposals outlining the theme, script (brief), and regional language/dialect they intend to use.
- Deadline for submission: 03 .10.2024
- Please submit your written proposals to legal aid society official email I.D. only i.e. lc2legalaidsociety24@gmail.com

Selection and Mentoring:

Selected proposals will be given the opportunity to perform in various local areas across Delhi. Guidance and mentoring will be provided by faculty members to ensure the quality and impact of the performances.

Recognition and Awards:

Outstanding performances will be recognized and awarded certificates of appreciation.

For further information, feel free to contact Dr.Ashutosh k.Srivastava (9079298265).

Let's come together to make a difference through the power of street theatre!

Warm Regards,

Professor (Dr.) Anupam Jha
