ABOUT LATE SHRI S.K. PURI

Shri Surinder Kumar Puri was born in 1937 in Punjab, where his family lost everything during the partition of the country. With sheer grit and determination, Shri S.K. Puri persevered against the odds to obtain his law degree from the University of Delhi in 1962. Shri S.K. Puri learned under the mentorship of the best legal minds. He began his practice under the mentorship of Shri Bawa Shiv Charan, an authority on criminal and civil law in the Tis Hazari Court of Delhi.

His father-in-law, Late Shri FC Bedi was the doyen of Asia's largest bar, i.e., Delhi Bar Association, and also served as its President. Vakil Lane, a street near KG Marg in New Delhi has been named after him.

Being a first-generation lawyer, Shri S.K. Puri had humble beginnings from a small wooden bench under a tree in the Tis Hazari Court. In 1968, he grew his practice to the Delhi High Court and rose to become a successful lawyer, who was designated as a celebrated Senior Advocate in 2001 by the Delhi High Court.

Apart from being a consummate lawyer, Shri S.K. Puri was endowed with great leadership qualities. He served as the Joint Secretary of the Delhi Bar Association (DBA) and was also elected as the Honorary Secretary of the Delhi High Court Bar Association (DHCBA) for six terms, between 1974 and 1985. He had a reputation as an upright, ethical, and honest lawyer among his peers, and during his time in office, he fought for the rights of lawyers and was instrumental in getting the first Chamber Block constructed in the High Court of Delhi.

Often referred to as the 'Ready Reckoner', Shri S.K. Puri was blessed with eidetic memory, which he used to his benefit in court by efficiently recalling details of documents. He freely shared his knowledge with peers and juniors and was appreciated in the community for his sensitivity. He also built a reputation as an incisive cross-examiner, who brought the toughest witnesses to their knees. Shri S.K. Puri believed in the '3P's of practice—Preparation, Presence, and Perseverance. He embodied these qualities to emerge with unparalleled skill and court craft.

Shri S.K. Puri's illustrious legacy has been carried forward on the able shoulders of his sons, Mr. Gaurav Puri and Mr. Sacchin Puri. Mr. Gaurav Puri has been the joint secretary of the Delhi High Court Bar Association for two terms.

Mr. Sacchin Puri, a legal luminary with a distinguished career spanning decade, is widely recognized for his dedication and legal acumen. As the Managing Partner of M/s. UCOL Advocates & Consultants, he has steered the firm to unprecedented success for over 15 years. He currently serves as the Vice President of the Delhi High Court Bar Association (DHCBA).

A courtroom maestro, Mr. Sacchin Puri's expertise shines in high-profile civil and criminal litigations, serving a diverse clientele from government bodies to Fortune 500 companies. In 2013, he transitioned to independent counsel, achieving Senior Advocate status in just three years. His influence also guided the growth of M/s SPLC, Advocates and Consultants.

For over 7 years, Mr. Sacchin Puri has been a celebrated Senior Advocate, recognized for his exceptional skills by the esteemed Delhi High Court. A distinguished alumnus of Law Centre-II, he established a poignant memorial Moot Court Competition, showcasing his commitment to nurturing future legal minds.
